Born and raised in Santa Cruz, Chase is proud to be your local Insurance Agent located in Soquel, serving Santa Cruz county, the Bay Area, and the entire state of California. Chase earned a bachelor's degree in Public Relations, Advertising and Applied Communications and a minor in Ethics, Justice, and Policy from California State University, Chico. Chase is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha. The Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity is dedicated to the development of integrity, intellect, and high moral character. Being a CA resident all of his life has afforded him the unique opportunity to not only understand our amazing community but also take great pride in protecting the area that we live in.

At the Tedsen Insurance Agency, our focus is always on putting our customers first and forming long-lasting relationships built on trust and education. We want every customer to have a uniquely individual experience, focusing on only the policies you need, ensuring quality over quantity. We are extremely involved with our local community and pride ourselves on giving back by being involved with numerous non-profit organizations across the country. Our drive to contribute to and ensure our community is protected is what sets us apart.

At the Tedsen Insurance Agency, we believe in value over price. This is why we will advise you and your family on coverage and liability limits that will actually give you the peace of mind you deserve. We are not your cut coverage agency and will always advise you on the coverage that properly protects you and your family. We treat each one of our clients like family and we do everything we can to make sure our family is taken care of.

Our mission is to exceed expectations. We identify what matters most to you and offer solutions to protect it.
